CONVICTION AND SENTENCING ORDER

VIRGINIA: IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF HENRICO COUNTY

Judge: Buford M. Parsons, Jr.

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA

v.

ANDREA M. HILTON, DEFENDANT

On December 10, 2008, came the defendant, who stands indicted for a felony, to-wit: grand larceny (Virginia Code Section 18.2-95), as charged in the indictment, was led to the bar in the custody of the Sheriff, and came also Christopher J. Collins, her attorney heretofore appointed. The Commonwealth was represented by Mike Feinmel.

Whereupon, the accused was arraigned and after private consultation with and being advised by her counsel, pleaded guilty to the indictment, which plea was tendered by the accused in person. And the Court, having made inquiry and being of the opinion that the accused fully understood the nature and effect of her plea and of the penalties that may be imposed upon her conviction and of the waiver of trial by jury and of appeal, finding that the plea was voluntarily and intelligently entered, proceeded to hear and determine this case without the intervention of a jury as provided by law.

Having heard the evidence and argument of counsel, the Court finds the defendant guilty of the following offense:

CASE NUMBER	OFFENSE DESCRIPTION AND INDICATOR (F/M)	OFFENSE DATE	VA CODE SECTION
CR08-3721	grand larceny (F)	08-13-08	18.2-95

And it being demanded of the defendant if anything for herself she had or knew to say why judgment should not be pronounced against her according to law, and nothing being offered or alleged in delay of judgment, the Court sentences the defendant to incarceration with the Henrico County Jail for the term of twelve (12) months, the execution of eight (8) months of which sentence is suspended for three (3) years. Conditions of the suspended sentence are that the defendant keep the peace and be of good behavior, that upon her release from incarceration she be placed under the supervision of a Probation Officer of this Court, and that she make restitution in the amount of $500.00 to Target by making payments through her probation officer. The Court further Orders that the defendant pay the costs of this case in the amount of $805.00.

By operation of law, the defendant's privilege to operate a motor vehicle is suspended by the Department of Motor Vehicles effective fifteen days from this date if the costs are not paid pursuant to Virginia Code Section 46.2-395.

The Court certifies that at all times during this proceeding the defendant was present in person and her attorney was likewise present in person and capably represented the defendant, for which services he is allowed a fee in the amount of $270.00.

The defendant shall be given credit for time spent in confinement while awaiting trial pursuant to Virginia Code Section 53.1-187.

Thereupon, the defendant was remanded to the custody of the Sheriff.
