Pursuant to the provisions of Code Section 19.2-298.01, the Court has considered and reviewed the applicable discretionary sentencing guidelines and the guidelines worksheet. The sentencing guidelines worksheet and the written explanation of any departure from the guidelines are ordered filed as a part of the record in this case.

And it being demanded of the defendant if anything for herself she had or knew to say why judgment should not be pronounced against her according to law, and nothing being offered or alleged in delay of judgment, the Court sentences the defendant to incarceration with the Virginia Department of Corrections for a term of three (3) years and thirty (30) days, the execution of three (3) years of which sentence is suspended for five (5) years, on condition that she keep the peace and be of good behavior, that she abstain from the use of alcohol and illegal substances, and that upon her release from incarceration she report to be placed on supervision with the District #32 Office of Probation and Parole, where she will submit to alcohol and substance abuse testing and screening and obey all rules and recommendations required by her probation officer.
