ORDER

This day came the defendant, Tracy Lynn Pettus, who came according to the terms of her recognizance, who stands indicted for four (4) felonies, to-wit: Conspiracy, in violation of Section 18.2-22 of the Code of Virginia, Forgery, in violation of Section 18.2-172 of the Code of Virginia, Uttering, in violation of Section 18.2-172 of the Code of Virginia and Obtaining Property by False Pretenses, in violation of Section 18.2-178 of the Code of Virginia, and also came her attorney, Kathleen Llewellyn-Duncan, from the Office of the Public Defender, heretofore appointed, and the Attorney for the Commonwealth, for a plea.

Upon motion of the Attorney for the Commonwealth, such motion being granted, it is ORDERED that the offense charging Obtaining Property by False Pretense, Indictment #CR05001098-00, is hereby nolle prossed.

The defendant, having previously been arraigned, and at that time pleaded not guilty to the Indictments, advised the Court this day of his desire to change his plea.

Whereupon, the accused was re-arraigned and, after private consultation with his said counsel, pleaded guilty. The Court, having made inquiry and being of the opinion that the accused fully understood the nature and effects of his pleas and the penalties that may be imposed upon his conviction, proceeded to hear and to determine the case as provided by law.

On the plea of guilty to the charges and the evidence presented, it is the judgment of the Court that the Defendant is guilty of Conspiracy, Forgery and Uttering, as charged in the remaining indictments.

Upon motion of the defendant, by counsel, with objection, to have the defendant be referred for evaluation with the Work Release Program, such motion was denied.
