CARRIE LYNN DAVIS)	GRAND LARCENY
D.O.B. 11/21/1977)

This day came the Attorney for the Commonwealth and Carrie Lynn Davis, who stands indicted for felonies, to-wit: credit card theft, obtaining money by false pretense, credit card forgery, and grand larceny, appeared according to the conditions of her recognizance and came also M. Teresa Harris, the Assistant Public Defender.

Whereupon the accused was arraigned and after private consultation with and being advised by her said counsel, pleaded guilty to the Indictments, which pleas were tendered by the accused in person.

Whereupon the Court made inquiry of the accused in the manner provided in Part 3A, Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia, and did determine that the accused fully understood the nature and effect of her pleas, the penalties that could be imposed upon her conviction, the waiver of trial by jury and appeal, and did further determine that the pleas were voluntarily and intelligently given after the advice of said counsel.

Whereupon the Court proceeded to hear and determine the cases without the intervention of a jury, as provided by law, and having heard the evidence and argument of counsel finds the accused guilty of obtaining money by false pretense, credit card forgery, and grand larceny, as charged in the Indictments.

The Court, on motion of the defendant, by counsel, before fixing punishment or imposing sentence, directs the Probation Officer of this Court to thoroughly investigate and report to the Court as provided by law, and sentencing is set for 1:30 p.m. on December 1, 2014, to which time this case is continued.

The defendant is released on her existing bond until such time as this Court shall fix punishment or impose sentence in this case.
