LISA HARDING JONES, DEFENDANT

This day came the defendant who appeared in person with her court appointed attorney, M. Kevin Bailey. The Commonwealth was represented by James R. Ennis. The defendant stands before this Court on eleven (11) felony indictments.

On motion of the defendant by counsel and upon the Court's determination that the defendant fully understood the nature of the charges and the elements of the offenses, the defendant was allowed to waive the reading of the indictments. Whereupon, the defendant after being advised by her counsel and after being called to plea, pleaded GUILTY to the indictments, which pleas were tendered by the defendant in person. Having made inquiry and being of the opinion that the defendant fully understood the nature and effect of her pleas and of the penalties that may be imposed upon her convictions, and of the waiver of trial by jury and of appeal, and finding that the pleas were freely and voluntarily made, the Court accepted the pleas and proceeded to try these cases without the intervention of a jury as provided by law.

Having heard evidence as summarized by the Attorney for the Commonwealth and concurred with by the defendant and the attorney for the defendant, and certain facts having been stipulated in writing, and the Court having been advised by the defendant, her counsel, and the Attorney for the Commonwealth that there has been a plea agreement in these cases and such agreement in writing having been presented to the Court, and now filed herein, the Court accepts the said agreement and finds the defendant GUILTY of the following offenses:
