3. During the course of her practice as a pediatric nurse practitioner at Pediatric Associates of Charlottesville, Virginia, Ms. McRae wrote various prescriptions including antibiotics, nasal steroids and antifungals, with an expired prescriptive authority.
4. On July 10, 2012, during an interview with an investigator from the Department of Health Professions, Ms. McRae reported that she did not receive renewal notices for her prescriptive authority and did not know that it was separate from her nurse practitioner license.

5. The office manager for the Board of Nursing confirmed that according to the license tracking system, Ms. McRae never received any renewal reminders for her prescriptive authority.
